The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.

Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.

3.3.3. For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds, in the name of the Participating Class Member, to the State of California's Unclaimed Property Division.

3.3.4. The payment of Individual Class Payments shall not obligate Austal to confer any additional benefits or make any additional payments to Class Members beyond those specified in this Agreement.

3.3.5. The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all PAGA Members, including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as PAGA Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.

The Administrator will calculate the amount of the Participating Class Members' and Austal's portion of payroll withholding taxes and forward those amounts to the appropriate taxing authorities.

If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together in good faith on behalf of the Parties to modify the Agreement and satisfy the Court's concerns. Should the Court decline to conditionally certify the Class or to Preliminarily Approve all material aspects of the Settlement, the Settlement will be null and void, and the Parties will have no further obligations under it, provided, however, that the amounts of the Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees, Class Counsel Litigation Costs, Administration Expense Payment, and Class Representative Service Payments may be determined by the Court, and the Court's determination on these amounts shall be final and binding.

6. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

6.1. Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected the Administrator to administer this Settlement. The Administrator agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.

6.4.3. Not later than 3 business days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.

6.4.4. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, which ever are later.

A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

6.5.2. The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

6.5.3. Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases paragraph of this Agreement, regardless of whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

6.5.4. Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment, nor shall they have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement.

6.6. Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have until the Response Deadline (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email, or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination of the challenges.

6.7. Objections to Settlement.

6.7.1. Only Participating Class Members may object to the Settlement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement.

6.7.2. Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by email or mail. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than the Response Deadline (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).

6.7.3. Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.

The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments. The Weekly Reports must provide the Administrator's assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.

6.8.4. Workweek Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions, consistent with the terms of this Agreement, on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks. The Administrator's decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES AND ESCALATION CLAUSE. Based on its records, Austal has provided a Workweek Estimate. In the event the total Workweeks set forth in the Workweek Estimate is exceeded by more than 10%, the Parties agree that the Gross Settlement Amount shall be increased proportionately by the same percentage above 10%. For example, if the total Workweeks is in fact 11% higher than the Workweek Estimate, the Gross Settlement Amount will be increased by 1%.

8. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated to, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. If Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and neither Party shall have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Not later than 16 court days before the Final Approval Hearing, Class Representative will file in Court a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment, which shall include a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code § 2699, subd. (l) (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). Class Counsel will provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel in advance of filing for Defense Counsel’s review. Austal shall accept service of the Motion for Final Approval (and any other motions, declarations, proposed orders, exhibits, or other documents filed therewith) via electronic service at the addresses set forth in this Agreement or, if an electronic service agreement is already in place, pursuant to the Parties’ electronic service agreement.

9.1. Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise by the Court.

9.2. Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court’s concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval.

9.3. Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

9.4. Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Attorneys’ Fees and Class Counsel Litigation Costs set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals.

9.5. Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall agree to expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court’s concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur.

10. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit a proposed amended judgment.

11. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

11.1. No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by the Parties that any of the allegations or the defenses in the Operative Complaint have merit or that there is any liability for any claims asserted. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval, or enter Judgment, all Parties reserve the right to prosecute and/or contest certification of any class for any reason, reserve all available claims and defenses in the Action, among reservation of all other relevant rights. The Settlement, this Agreement, and the Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

11.2. No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

11.3. Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.

11.4. Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by the Parties, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.

11.5. Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence, and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court, among other things. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.

11.6. No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.

11.7. No Tax Advice. Neither the Parties, Class Counsel, nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.

11.8. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, as their legal representatives.

11.9. Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.

11.10. Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.

11.11. Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.

11.12. Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.

11.13. Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to “days” in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.

11.14. Notice. All notices or other communications between the Parties required in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given as of the 3rd business day after mailing by U.S. Mail or the same day if sent by email, addressed as follows:

Notice of Class Action Settlement

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Isaiah Harris et al. v. Austal USA LLC et al.

Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Diego

Case No. 37-2023-00034540-CU-OE-CTL

This notice is to the following individuals in connection with a pending class action settlement:

“Class” or “Class Member(s)” means all individuals currently or formerly employed by Austal in California as hourly, non-exempt employees during the period from August 11, 2019, through October 2, 2023, or the date of preliminary approval, whichever is earlier.

Read this notice carefully. Your legal rights could be affected whether you act or not.

The Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Diego (the “Court”) has preliminarily approved this class and representative action lawsuit filed by Isaiah Harris (“Class Representative”) against Austal USA LLC (“Austal”) for alleged wage and hour violations (the “Lawsuit”).

The Lawsuit is based on various causes of action: (1) failure to pay all regular and minimum, (2) meal period violations, (3) rest period violations, (4) paid sick leave violations, (5) untimely payment of wages, (6) wage statement violations, (7) waiting time penalties, (8) failure to reimburse business expenses, (9) violations of the unfair competition laws, and (10) civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act. Austal denies all claims and maintains it has fully complied with the law.

Austal’s records reflect you worked [[Individual Workweeks]] workweeks during the Class Period of August 11, 2019, through October 2, 2023. Based on this information, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $[[Individual Class Payment]] (less any applicable state and federal withholdings). The actual amount you may receive will likely be different and will depend on multiple factors, such as how many other individuals decide to opt out.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT
DO NOTHING	You do not have to do anything in response to this notice. If you do nothing, you will remain eligible to automatically receive an Individual Class Payment if the Court grants final approval of the settlement. In such case, you will be bound by the release provisions in the settlement.
OPT OUT	You may opt out of the Settlement by submitting a Request for Exclusion form. If you opt out, you may not object to the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment, and you shall not be bound by the release provisions in the settlement.
OBJECT	You may object to the Settlement by submitting a written objection. If the Court grants final approval of the settlement despite your objection, you will remain eligible to automatically receive an Individual Class Payment if the Court grants final approval of the settlement. In such case, you will be bound by the release provisions in the settlement.

The Court's final approval hearing is scheduled to take place on [[Final Approval Hearing Date]] at [[Final Approval Hearing Time]] in Dept. 75 of the San Diego Superior Court, located at 330 W Broadway, San Diego, CA 92101. You do not have to attend but you do have the right to appear. For more information, please carefully read this notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

The Class Representative is former employee of Austal. The Class Representative alleged Austal violated California labor and employment laws as follows: (1) failure to pay all regular and minimum, (2) meal period violations, (3) rest period violations, (4) paid sick leave violations, (5) untimely payment of wages, (6) wage statement violations, (7) waiting time penalties, (8) failure to reimburse business expenses, (9) violations of the unfair competition laws, and (10) civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act. Plaintiffs are represented by Ferraro Vega Employment Lawyers ("Class Counsel.")

Austal denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT ARE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT TERMS?

At the Final Approval Hearing, the Class Representative, through Class Counsel, will ask the Court to approve a Gross Settlement Amount of $425,000 and authorize the following deductions: Class Representative Service Payment ($10,000), Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees in the amount of 33.33% of the Gross Settlement ($141,652.50), Class Counsel Litigation Costs (not to exceed $20,000), the LWDA's 75% portion of the PAGA Payment ($7,500.00), and the Administration Expenses to be paid to the third-party settlement administrator (not to exceed $10,000).

After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will calculate and distribute making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks. 20% of each Individual Class Payment shall constitute taxable wages ("Wage Portion") and 80% shall constitute interest and penalties ("Non-Wage Portion"). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms.

Austal will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Administrator will report the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the settlement, unless you submit a signed Request for Exclusion by the [[Response Deadline]] "Response Deadline".

After the Judgment is final and Austal has fully funded the settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the settlement, as follows:

Release by Participating Class Members: All Participating Class Members release Released Parties from any and all claims, damages, and penalties alleged in the Operative Complaint and arising out of the facts in the Operative Complaint during the Class Period, including, without limitation, claims for: (1) failure to pay all regular and minimum, (2) meal period violations, (3) rest period violations, (4) paid sick leave violations, (5) untimely payment of wages, (6) wage statement violations, (7) waiting time penalties, (8) failure to reimburse business expenses, (9) violations of the unfair competition laws, and (10) civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act. Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts outside of the Operative Complaint or outside the Class Period.

Release by PAGA Members: All PAGA Members and the LWDA release Released Parties from, and are forever barred from pursuing such against Released Parties for, the PAGA claims alleged in and/or arising out of the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint and Plaintiff's operative Notice of Labor Code Violations during the PAGA Period, including, without limitation penalties for violations of Labor Code sections 204, 204b, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246 through 248.7, 510, 512, 516, 1194, 1198, 2699(g), 2802, and 2804, as well as all relevant IWC Wage Orders, predicated on the underlying alleged violations for: (1) unpaid overtime, (2) unpaid paid sick leave, (3) unpaid meal period premium wages, (4) unpaid rest period premium wages, (5) untimely payment of wages during employment, (6) non-complaint wage statements, and (7) unreimbursed employee expenses.

3. HOW IS MY INDIVIDUAL CLASS SETTLEMENT CALCULATED?

The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the class period are stated on the first page of this notice. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (1) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and then (2) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each respective Participating Class Member. In other words, you will receive a proportional recovery based on your length of employment in relation to other Class Members.

4. HOW CAN I CORRECT THE NUMBER OF WORKWEEKS?

You have until the Response Deadline to correct or challenge the number of Workweeks. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail or email to the Administrator at the following address:

Administrator:
CPT Group, Inc.
50 Corporate Park
Irvine, CA, 92606
(800) 542-0900
info@cptgroup.com

The Administrator will accept Austal's calculation of Workweeks as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member following the Effective Date of this Settlement. Your check will be sent to the same address as this notice. If you change your address, notify the Administrator as soon as possible.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Complete the attached Request for Exclusion form and mail or email it to the Administrator before the Response Deadline.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement by submitting a written objection to the Administrator before the Response Deadline. To object, please provide a written statement to the Administrator advising what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Please sign the objection and identify the Action and include your name, current address, telephone number, and your approximate dates of employment.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection.

8. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You may, but are not required to, attend the Final Approval Hearing on [[Final Approval Hearing Date]] at [[Final Approval Hearing Time]] in Dept. 75 of the San Diego County Superior Court, located at 330 W Broadway, San Diego, CA 92101. At the hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and how much of the Gross Settlement will be paid to the LWDA, Class Counsel, the Class Representative(s), and the Administrator. The Court will invite comment from objectors, Class Counsel, and Defense Counsel before making a decision.

It is possible the Court will reschedule the Final Approval Hearing. Please review the Court’s online docket or contact the Administrator or Class Counsel to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing if you believe it may have been continued or otherwise changed.

9. HOW CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

The Agreement sets forth everything Austal and Plaintiffs have promised to do under the proposed Settlement. The easiest way to read the Agreement, the Judgment, or any other Settlement documents is to go to the Court’s website, access the Register of Actions, and search for the case using the case number at the top of this notice. 10. WHAT IF I LOSE MY SETTLEMENT CHECK OR FAIL TO CASH IT?

If you lose or misplace your settlement check, the Administrator will replace it if you request a replacement before the void date on the face of the original check.
