

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Rafael Jimenez, individually and on behalf of other persons similarly situated and similarly aggrieved employees v. Cargo HS LLC, Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. 21STCV15258

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!

It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee putative class and representative action lawsuit (“Action”) against CARGO HS LLC (hereafter referred to as “CARGO”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former CARGO employee, Rafael Jimenez, (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) unpaid wages and other relief for a putative class of hourly, non-exempt employees who worked for CARGO during the period from April 21, 2017 through March 31, 2023 (“Class Members”); and (2) penalties and other relief under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) for all hourly, non-exempt employees who worked for CARGO during the period from April 21, 2020, through March 31, 2023 (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring CARGO to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring CARGO to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on CARGO’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be «ClassEstAmount» (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be «PAGAestAmt». The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to CARGO’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the period of April 21, 2020, through March 31, 2023.)

The above estimates are based on CARGO’s records showing that you worked «WorkWeeks» workweeks during the Class Release Period (the period of April 21, 2017, through March 31, 2023) and you worked «PAGAPeriods» Pay Periods during the PAGA Release Period (the period of April 21, 2020, through March 31, 2023). If you believe that you worked more workweeks/pay periods during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires CARGO to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against CARGO.

If you worked for CARGO during the Class Period (the period of April 21, 2017, through March 31, 2023) and/or the PAGA Period (the period April 21, 2020, through March 31, 2023), you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don’t have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert the claims against CARGO that are covered by this Settlement.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue wage claims during the Class Release Period you may have against CARGO, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

CARGO will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the claims against CARGO that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is November 25, 2024	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. CARGO must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by November 25, 2024	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the January 7, 2025 Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on January 7, 2025, at 9:00 a.m. You don't have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court's virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by November 25, 2024	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Release Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Release Period, respectively. The number of Class Release Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Release Period Pay Periods you worked according to CARGO's records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by November 25, 2024. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former CARGO employee. The Action accuses CARGO of violating California labor laws by failing to pay overtime wages; minimum wages; wages due upon termination including accrued vacation wages and failing to provide meal periods, rest breaks and accurate itemized wage statements. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action:

Zorik Mooradian, Esq. and Haik Hacopian, Esq. of Mooradian Law, APC ("Class Counsel.")

CARGO strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether CARGO or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime,

Plaintiff and CARGO hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and CARGO have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, CARGO does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) CARGO has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. CARGO Will Pay $550,000 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). CARGO has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, the Administrator’s expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, CARGO will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 21 days after the Judgment entered by the Court becomes final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $ 183,333.33 (33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement) to Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and up to $15,000 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $7,500.00 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff’s Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $10,000 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $25,000 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% ($18,750) to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($6,250) in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Release Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Release Period Workweeks.

3. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and CARGO are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 80% to interest and penalties (“Non-Wage Portion.”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. (CARGO will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion.) The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and CARGO have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

4. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don't cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. (sco.ca.gov)

If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller's Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

5. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than November 25, 2024, that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the November 25, 2024, Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member's name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against CARGO.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against CARGO based on facts alleged in the Action.

6. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and CARGO have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void CARGO will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against CARGO.
7. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, CPT Group, Inc. (the "Administrator") to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks/Pay Periods, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
8. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and CARGO has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against CARGO or related entities for claims based on the facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement for the period of April 21, 2017 through March 31, 2023.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties (CARGO and each of its present and former parent companies, subsidiaries, divisions, concepts, related or affiliated companies, and its shareholders, owners, partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, successors and assigns, and CARGO's counsel of record in the Action) from any and all claims under state, federal, or local law, whether statutory or common law arising out of the claims expressly pleaded in the Action and all other claims, such as those under the California Labor Code, applicable Wage Orders, regulations, and/or other provisions of law, that could have been pleaded based on the facts pleaded in the Action for (1) failure to pay minimum wages, (2) failure to pay overtime wages, (3) failure to provide all meal breaks; (4) failure to provide all rest breaks, (5) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, (6) failure to timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, (7)

failure to maintain required records, (8) unfair business practices, and all claims for injunctive relief, liquidated damages, penalties, including all civil penalties under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, interest, fees, and costs, and all other claims and allegations made that could have been made in the Action during the Class Release Period based on the facts and allegations in the Operative Complaint. Except as set forth in Section 5.2 of the Settlement Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside this Action.

9. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's judgment is final, and CARGO has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against CARGO, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against CARGO based on the facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement for the period of April 21, 2020 through March 31, 2023.

The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties (CARGO and each of its present and former parent companies, subsidiaries, divisions, concepts, related or affiliated companies, and its shareholders, owners, partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, successors and assigns, and CARGO's counsel of record in the Action) from all claims for PAGA penalties (and associated fees and costs) that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice including (1) failure to pay minimum wages, (2) failure to pay overtime wages, (3) failure to provide all meal breaks; (4) failure to provide all rest breaks, (5) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, (6) failure to timely pay wages during employment and upon termination, and (7) failure to maintain required records.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $6,250.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Release Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Release Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Release Period, as recorded in CARGO's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until November 25, 2024, to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept CARGO's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on CARGO's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and CARGO's Counsel. If the Administrator's decision is not satisfactory to you, your challenge will be submitted to the Court for resolution at the Final Approval Hearing. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge the Court's final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as "Cargo HS Class Action Settlement", and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by November 25, 2024, or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and CARGO are asking the Court to approve. At least 75 days before the January 7, 2025, Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website at www.cptgroupcaseinfo.com/cargohssettlement or the Court's website at <https://www.lacourt.org/casesummary/ui/>.

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is November 25, 2024. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action as "Cargo HS Class Action Settlement" and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for CARGO and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

8. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing on January 7, 2025, at 9:00 a.m., in Department SS-6 of the Los Angeles Superior Court, located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012.
